

CT University Signs MOU With Derby University

DERBY UNIVERSITY

CT University has signed the MoU with University of Derby. Dr. Kathryn Mitchell, Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive, University of Derby and Mr. Lew Wernick, Head of International Recruitment and Collaborations visited CT University. The delegates appreciated the academic programs especially Industry Integrated academic programs, student support system and the quality learning of students. Moreover, they had interactive session with the students.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of student exchange, faculty exchange and research collaborations in areas of mutual interests, for production of academic publications, journals and papers and organization of international events.